PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolina, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet. Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience are confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the anger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered) gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E. E. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES, Editors.

Wednesday Evening, Aug. 8, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
No Further Amendments.

FOR GOVERNOR.
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Philadelphia Convention.

The delegates from the several Districts in this State, for the purpose of appointing delegates for the State at large to the Philadelphia Convention, will meet in this City, on Friday next, at the Court House, at 12 o'clock, M. The N. C. Railroad, and, we believe, all the rest, pass the delegates over the Roads for half price.

The delegates to the District Convention of this District will meet on the same day, at 11 o'clock, in the Court House, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Gilliam.

Our Second Volume.

Our issue of yesterday closed the first volume of the Daily Sentinel, and this number begins the second. The year has been one of severe toil and labor, and the conduct of our journal, amidst the untoward circumstances of our people, has been a difficult task. Journalism in this State has been unfortunate, in that it has not always been in the hands of ingenuous and true men, whose highest aim is to promote the interests of society and the good of the whole. Selfishness and mere partyism, perhaps in spite of themselves, with many have ruled the hour, while the charity "which hopeth all things" is seldom exercised. Hence, the difficulty of conducting a political journal, which aims at the highest good of the whole people of the State.

Materially, the Sentinel is a success, and is fixed on a permanent basis. This has been accomplished singly by the favor it has met from the public. No one has contributed a dollar to its success, except in the way of ordinary business For this success, we feel greatly indebted to the generous kindness and forbearance of our patrons.

We now issue regularly a Daily, a Semi-Weekly, and a Weekly paper. The quantity and quality of the reading matter they contain are not inferior to that of any paper in the State, and our advertising patronage has been so flattering that we have not been compelled to fill our columns with dead matter.

Encouraging as our patronage has been, the Sentinel, so far, has not been a source of remuneration to the proprietor, over and above the neccessary expenditures of those connected with it, yet it has paid its way; but, to do this, it has claimed the entire means of the office from all sources.

Our circulation has been by far too small to make the Sentinel what we design it to be. The small number of Post offices in the State, the extreme scarcity of money, and the being compelled to credit a large amount of advertising, and, at the beginning, a considerable subscription, have operated prejudicially. Our friends, who owe us, would do us a special kindness to pay up in a few weeks.

The Sentinel shall continue to be a firm defender of law and order, a warm supporter of President Johnson's policy, and a vehicle of the latest news. It will oppose proscription for opinion's sake and will labor to cultivate unanimity and concord among our whole people,—We are devoted to the Union of the States, under the Constitution as it is, and shall oppose all attempts to change that instrument by amendments which affect the structure and genius of the government of our fathers.

We beg our friends throughout the State to give us their aid in circulating the Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly Sentinel. It shall be improved and enlarged, in proportion to our means and patronage.

Mr. Holden and the Constitution.

We begin to think, seriously, that if the new Constitution has been defeated, it is very much owing to Mr. Holden's advocacy of it. A friend informs us that at a precinct in an adjoining County, where the vote was almost unanimous against it, the enquiry of the people, as they came up to the election ground, generally was: "Will Holden vote for it?" They acknowledged that they had not seen the papers, nor heard much about it, and really did not know how to vote, but thought they could determine how to vote right, if they knew how "Holden" stood. They were told that Mr. Holden was for the new Constitution. That was enough,—many exclaiming, "well, if Holden is for it, I'm agin it."

"ONE AHEAD," a correspondent of the Radical organ in this city, endorses the previous communication of "P," in the same paper, and, as his nomme de plume indicates, goes even a bow-shot beyond. He is not simply content with pronouncing the "whole proceeding of the President, in his policy of restoration, an usurpation not authorized by the Constitution," but he wishes North Carolina to be represented in the contemplated Radical Convention, which is to organize Southern opposition to the President, and which (nothing to the contrary appearing in the call,) is to be held irrespective of color! The Editors of the Radical organ do not demur to the suggestion.

"ONE AHEAD" is so delectated with his brother "P," that he suggests that the initial must stand for "pluck". May be so; the yearling that tried to butt the engine off the track was a plucky animal, but his discretion was sadly at fault, and he was impaled on the cow-catcher, as a consequence of his temerity.

THE NEW YORK Herald says that "it would seem as if there had not been enough blood-letting to satisfy the Radical Chandlers; but if another intestine conflict shall come, the Radicals themselves—who escaped scot-free during the recent war, and made money out of the miseries they had caused—will certainly be the first victims."

THERE ARE TIMES in all national annals when what may appear to be the narrowest prejudices have an amazing resemblance to the noblest virtues. When HANNIBAL was thundering at the gates of Rome, the old Patricians in the forum carried on their courts as usual, and would not deduct a farthing from the value of the lands they set up for sale, though the beseiger was encamped upon them. This blind and unreasoning obstinacy was closely akin to a stern and unyielding patriotism.

The spirit which moves the people of the South to persist in the declaration, notwithstanding the results of the late war, that they were actuated by conscientious motives in the struggle, and that they have no bitter memories on that score, may savor to some of bigotry and wilful persistence in error, while it is really that honest conviction which does not succumb to defeat. The feeling which actuates them to prefer, as a general rule, to select as their representatives, and as the custodians of their honor and their interests, the men who led them, or fought for them, or shared their fortunes, or in any way sympathized with them, in the recent conflict, by whatever name it may be called by demagogues and factionists, is a sublime sentiment of gratitude and a high appreciation of constancy, fidelity and integrity. The disposition which prompts them to regard their scourged and devastated land as still the garden spot of earth, to be loved with an intenser devotion on account of its desolation, and which recognizes in their fire-blasted homes dearer attractions than are to be found in the mansions of affluence and excess elsewhere in this round world, may seem manlin and foolish to those whose ignoble souls are not attuned to such lofty considerations. But it is, nevertheless, the same holy and beautiful instinct of local attachment which has existed since time began, and been celebrated alike in song and story. And, finally, the impulse which moves them to love their own neighbors and immediate fellow citizens better than they do anybody else, and to seek their good and promote their interests,—especially which scorns to injure their own kith and kin and for any motive to pander to the passions and prejudices of their fanatical oppressors,—may be called sectional, "disloyal," and all that, but it is simply natural affection, ordinary honesty and common decency.

THE BLOOD of every man shed in New Orleans, during the late riot, is upon the garments of Radicalism. If justice should overtake the true criminals, it will fall upon the heads of the Boutwells and Wades, the Sumners and Stevenses, and not upon those of the ignorant and deluded negroes.

The whole thing sums up thus: The Congressional Jacobins projected a revolutionary movement in Louisiana. They had organized and armed negroes ready to sustain the movement. In an official attempt to disperse this mob of negroes and to preserve the peace of the city of New Orleans, there ensued a good deal of killing. If there be any virtue in logic, then the congressional Jacobins of Washington are the direct instigators of this New Orleans riot. Behind these Jacobins stands as participes criminis the whole fanatical, intolerant black republican party.

WILMINGTON DISPATCH.—Col. Jno. D. Barry has disposed of this journal to Messrs. Geo. B. Baker, Henry H. Smith and Benj. Robinson, by whom it will hereafter be carried on. Capt. Robinson and Mr. Smith will have charge of the Editorial department, and the paper, under their auspices, will be ably and vigorously conducted. We extend to all three of the gentlemen the right hand of welcome, and wish them abundant sucess, while we express, at the same time, our regret at parting with so genial and gentlemanly a co-worker as Col. Barry.

Taxes Received from the Southern States.

The following is a statement of moneys received by the direct Tax Commissioners for the States named below, from January 1, to June 30, 1866, being payments upon the quota of the States for the direct tax of twenty million dollars, levied by act of Congress, approved August 5, 1861:—

Arkansas	$114,642	Tennessee	$100,000
Georgia	50,548	Texas	47,423
Mississippi	25,000	Virginia	237,270
North Carolina	232,380
South Carolina	66,667	Total	$873,892

It will be seen that the "disloyal" State of North Carolina has paid a larger amount of taxes than any one of the States designated, and more than twice as much as the "loyal" State of Tennessee.

First Congressional District.

The Convention for this District assembled at Edenton on the 1st. inst. Hon. W. N. H. Smith, of Hertford, and Col. H. A. Gilliam, of Chowan, were elected as delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, with Edw. Conigland, Esq., of Halifax, and Mills L. Eure, of Gates, as alternates.

NEW MUSIC.—We are indebted to the Publishers, Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston, for choice pieces of new music, as follows: Gentle Nellie, Thou has left us; Vivienne Waltz; Humming Bird Waltzes; 'Tis past the hour; We are merry troubadours; and The Pianists' Wreath. Ditson advertises in the Sentinel. See new ars nouncement in to-day's issue.

One of our exchanges says that the smallest thing the Radicals did in Congress was striking out the sum proposed for repairs of the President's house, to show their spite towards its occupant.

LOUISVILLE, August 4.—At a large Duvall (Conservative) meeting last night three cheers were heartily given for General Lee, after an extravagant eulogium on that officer by one of the speakers.

There appears to be good reason for supposing that an abundant supply of petroleum exists in the rocks of England. It is stated that the surface "indications" of various parts of Shropshire lead to this inference. Experimental-borings are already in progress.

For the Sentinel.

The Quakers.

On Saturday last, at Springfield, in Guilford County, North Carolina, a quiet examination was had of A. M. Tomlinson's Sabbath School; Joseph Moore, with his (Quaker) normal school, being present.

For some fifteen years, this unostentatious good old man, A. M. Tomlinson, may have been seen, every Sunday morning, wending his way to his Sabbath School, at Springfield.—Whatever else war may have broken up, it did not interrupt his Sabbath School. Children of all creeds, or no creed, were received. His pupils always appeared—always with clean shirts and otherwise well clad. If they could not help themselves, he took care that they were provided for. He allows his Heavenly Father only to know what went from his purse for this purpose. The school was maintained in its full vigor, while the genius of desolation presided over every thing else. This is a rural school,—not in a town. He has 214 pupils, and a corps of 17 teachers. He has infused into all his spirit. If any scholar or teacher absents himself on any Sabbath, or in any way fails to perform his duties, he is censured; and they are taught to feel this censure much more acutely than members of Congress feel it when the Speaker admonishes the culprit. The result is that all reverence their teacher, and, from affection, respect his orders. A gentle word from him controls every urchin in his school more than forty birches.

The instruction is equal to the government. The portal to knowledge is intelligent reading. They read admirably.

The speeches are all delivered in natural and audible tones,—without a speck of ostentatious vanity, and all inculcate the right principles of moral conduct.

The adjacent country is catching the happy contagion. The whole surrounding country is building up like schools.

And what is this normal school, over which Joseph Moore presides?

The Northern Quakers, at the close of the war, without noise or ostentation, for the relief of their Southern brethren, raised money and sent hither this Joseph Moore, of North Carolina descent, distinguished for his learning and virtue, and capacity to teach, and not for fanaticism, and, months ago, put in operation thirty schools, in every Quaker neighborhood in the State, under native teachers, paid out of this beneficent fund, and books furnished by the same fund. Where school houses were lacking, the inhabitants furnished labor, and this fund furnished the money, and school houses were built. The first session of these schools expired some weeks ago. Whereupon all the teachers, some forty in number, were summoned by the General Superintendent to Springfield, and for weeks have been under the instruction of the Superintendent. This is the Quaker Normal School. By this means the Superintendent finds out who of his subordinates are incompetent, and improves the competent. This fund is large enough to keep up these schools another year.

In connection with this truly Christian and useful design, the managers are now trying to buy a model farm on which scientific and practical agriculture is to be taught. The actors in all this seek no notoriety. The writer of this article asks its publication that others may profit by this truly Christian example. Are the children of other Christian denominations in this afflicted country less needing the help of their Northern friends? Has any other Church exhibited like brotherly love and care for their distressed members in the South?

Thad Stevens, the acknowledged leader of the U. S. Congress, and therefore to be regarded as a fair exponent of the general sentiment of the North, on the occasion of appropriating $1,500,000 for repairing the levees of the Mississippi and preventing the overflow of the adjacent country, opposed the appropriation and said: "I don't advocate the hanging of rebels, but if the Almighty intended drowning them out, I don't see why Congress should interfere."

Contrast the spirit of the Northern Quakers with the spirit of Thad. Stevens, and those whose views he represents, and learn that all the Northern people are not monsters. Let us hope that the wise and Christian benevolence of the Quakers may have its just influence on the minds of the masses of the North. Then, indeed, will follow true reconciliation between the alienated sections of our once united and happy country. Would to God that the spirit of the Northern Quakers had had a place in the late Northern Congress!

SPECTATOR.

WHAT SUMNER, WADE, AND STEVENS SAID OF THE LOUISIANA RADICAL CONVENTION.—When the Louisiana members of Congress elected under the constitution framed by the Convention which was dispersed the other day applied for admission to their seats, Mr. Sumner said:

Mr. President, I remember last summer that good fortune threw me in the path of a distinguished gentleman just returned from Louisiana. I think he had been present at the sittings of the Convention; at any rate, he had been at New Orleans at the time in the discharge of important public duties. In reply to an inquiry in regard to that Convention, he said compendiously that it was nothing but a stupendous hoax—yes, sir, nothing but a stupendous hoax.

The pretended State government of Louisiana is utterly indefensible, whether you look at its origin or its character. To describe it I must use plain language. It is a mere seven months' abortion begotten by the bayonet in criminal conjunction with the spirit of caste, and born before its time, rickety, unformed, unfinished.

In the same debate, Mr. Wade says:

Sir, I have heard a great deal about this pretended election in Louisiana which did not come from Major-General Banks, and I pronounce the proceeding a mockery. It is not pretended that there could be drummed up from the riff-raff of New Orleans, and sent into the vicinity, under the madate of a major-general, more than about six thousand votes, where over fifty thousand were formerly polled.

Mr. Grimes and other Radicals spoke in the same strain, and at the conclusion of the debate the Louisiana Convention and its works were condemned by the decisive vote of thirty-two to twelve. In the House it was assailed by Thad. Stevens, Winter Davis, and their followers, with equal vigor and ferocity, and met the same fate at the hands of the Radicals. And it is this object of their concentrated denuciation that they now take up to give a pretence of legality to their conspiracy against peace and order in Louisiana!

The Eighth Congressional District in New York, comprising the 18th, 20th and 21st wards, must be a "nobby" place to live in. It contains over 800 persons with incomes of over $10,000 a year.

Among them are such comfortable figures for house-keeping as Richard Arnold, $132,000; Aaron Arnold, $300,000; Edwin Hoyt, $298,000; Wm. Paton, $317,000; Moses Taylor, $839,000, &c.

We are sorry to learn that a prominent citizen of St. Louis, who has been drinking imprudently of the muddy river water furnished for that place, died last week from a sand bar in his alimentary canal.

Radical Threats to Break up the Philadelphia Convention---The Result of any Attempt to Execute Them.

The Philadelphia Age, commenting upon the recent statement of the correspondent of the New York Commercial, that the National Philadelphia Convention was to be violently broken up by the Philadelphia firemen, aided by released soldiers, pronounces it a slander on the firemen, and denies that there is any organized plan to disturb the Convention by mob violence. The Age continues:

Bad and utterly reckless as we know the followers of Sumner and Stevens to be, we do not think they are yet ready to "cry havoc, and let slip the dogs of war," in their own midst, and by their lawless conduct inaugurate scenes of horror and desolation on a soil where peace and quiet are now reigning. But knowing the animus which prompted the above gross slander—fully conscious that there are numbers in the Radical ranks "willing to wound, but yet afraid to strike"—we beg to offer a few plain words of friendly advice to these peculiar advocates of law and order, who, it is alleged by the Commercial's correspondent, propose to "break up" the August Convention, because "it is regarded with great disfavor" by the Radicals.

The National Union Convention, which will assemble in this city on the 14th. instant, being a perfectly legal body, convened for the single purpose of sustaining the President and upholding the Government of the United States, now threatened by malignant traitors, we presume that any attempt to disturb its peace, or, in the slightest degree, interfere with its deliberations, will meet with a prompt and decided check on the part of our city authorities. Common safety, if not common prudence, sternly demands such action. It must not be supposed, and perhaps it is well to understand it now, that the people would tamely submit to such an outrage as is suggested in the paragraph we have quoted. In time of actual war they may be willing to postpone certain rights, but in a period of profound peace they will insist upon a return to all the ancient landmarks, and insist, too, in such a manner as not to be disregarded. Among those inalienable privileges, which their fathers imagined had been secured to their posterity forever, are freedom of speech, the liberty of the press, and, in the concise and significant language of the Constitution, "the right of the people peaceably to assemble." Hence, we reasonably infer that in the event of the contingency referred to, the municipal arm would be unhesitatingly raised to protect the people in their rights, and that failing, the stronger power of the General Government, so often invoked in the past by the Radicals to protect them in their lawlessness and crime, would promptly be called into requisition to preserve the peace of the country, enforce its known and recognized laws, and enable its citizens "peaceably to assemble" in accordance with the express guarantees of the Great Charter. Should, however, this last hope desert them; should the properly constituted authorities, from any cause whatever, be powerless to turn aside the great outrage contemplated, the final resort of freemen would still be theirs, the full exercise of which no human hand could prevent—the right and determination to protect themselves at every hazard and at every extremity!

The men of property in Philadelphia, of all parties, have too much at stake to blindly overlook what must follow assuredly as light follows darkness, if this Radical madness, unrebuked and unrestrained, crops out into its natural and legitimate fruit. Not the mere tools of these madmen would alone meet with proper punishment, but the greater criminals, who, in their counting rooms and dainty parlors and snug offices, concocted and instigated the deep villainy, would be sought out and ground to powder beneath "the nether millstone of the people's wrath." It is folly any longer to blink the truth, fearful and appalling though the vision of the future may be. One fact is certain, and may be relied upon as fixed and settled—any attempt to "break up" the approaching Convention will provoke a spirit in the breasts of the friends of the Union and the Constitution but little dreamed of by these miserable "architects of ruin." Those who sow the storm must not complain if they are compelled to reap the whirlwind. It may be that the new civil war, so anxiously desired by these wretched fanatics, and so laboriously prepared for by their reckless and unprincipled leaders in Congress, may thus be quickly inaugurated! We are no alarmists, but silence now would be worse than criminal. As unwavering and consistent friends of law and order, who in the dreary past counselled, in every instance, patience and submission to the laws, and the men who executed them, no matter how burthensome, we here, today, enter a solemn protest against the revolutionary schemes of these "dark political gamesters." We speak not to mere partisans. We speak to the brave, the loyal, and the true of all creeds and all parties. We speak to men "embarked on a common voyage, whose certain destiny is either common safety or common ruin." In God's name, let us have Peace. The scars of our people are still fresh, and the wounds of many of our brethren are still bleeding. Let the ghastly doors of the Temple of Janus be kept closed, at least until the widow puts off her mourning and the mother no longer weeps for her stricken child. Let the wise and patriotic policy of Andrew Johnson, who has sworn to preserve the unity of the Republic and maintain the sovereignty of the States, be permitted to produce its legitimate results. We believe the masses are earnestly with him. In the quiet, humble homes of the people—in the crowded marts of trade and commerce, "where passionate discord rears eternal Babel"—his name is blessed as their friend and protector. Night and morning, from a thousand altars, prayers ascend to Heaven for his welfare and preservation.—And if the crisis comes—if the storm breaks, and the volcano vomits forth its fire and blood, it will be found that there are millions of white freemen scattered throughout the once distracted, but now united, North and South, ready to throw themselves into the yawning gulf, to do battle for the great Tribune of the People.

A VERY HARD CASE.—We had hoped that the claims of the United States on those postmasters of the South who had funds and property of their department in hand at the beginning of the war would not be pressed. It is well known that the Confederate Government assumed control of the postal arrangements in its jurisdiction and ordered the postmasters to account to the Confederate Postmaster General. These officials did so account. They turned over all money and material to the de facto authority, and if they had not done so willingly, they would have been forced to do it.

The effect of making the Southern postmasters responsible for what they were compelled to do, will act injuriously on the future of the country; besides being an injustice of the rankest kind. We see that already large sums have been extorted from these unfortunate persons, and that all arrears are to be collected as soon as possible.—Richmond Whig.

An oyster dealer in Baltimore has made so much money in buying and selling the bivalvular luxury that he has purchased a large island in Chesspeake Bay, and is putting up a residence thereon that will cost half a million of dollars.

NORTH CAROLINA POLITICS.—We deprecate the effort which has been made in certain quarters to induce opposition to Gov. WORTH in his Candidacy for re-election to the Gubernatorial chair of this State.

We were original secessionists, and in sentiment are intimately connected with the friends of General RANSOM and COX; but whem a canvass of their claims can only injure the chances of defeating the Radical party in this State, through divisions in the ranks of the Conservative people, we feel that we are not at liberty to consult our preferences in this regard.

Gov. WORTH has deported himself in a manner highly honorable to himself and creditable to the reputation of the State, and has personal claims on the confidence of his fellow-citizens, having always, whatever his sentiments and convictions have been, been honest, reliable and consistent. To him we owe much of the gratitude we should feel for the escape which we made from HOLDEN'S rule.—Wilmington Dispatch.

GRASSHOPPER PANCAKES.—A new dish has been introduced in Paris, a city remarkable for ingenious cookery and its invention of new dishes for the table. It is that of grasshopper pancakes. A Paris correspondent tells how they are prepared. He says: "Take the insect daintily with the thumb and finger of the left hand, cut him in two with a penknife, and pour into his body six drops of rum, if he will hold so much. Let the whole number thus prepared soak in this liquor for two days; then make them into a paste and fry them like pancakes. They are to be eaten with sugar en poudre and a little Burgundy wine."

The following story is again in circulation through our exchanges:

A year or two after Tyler's accession, the President, contemplating an excursion in some direction, his son went to order a special train of cars. It so happened that the Superintendent was a very strong Whig. On "Bob's" making known his errand, that official bluntly informed him that his road did not run special trains for the President. "What!" said Bob, "did you not furnish a special train for the funeral of Gen. Harrison?" "Yes," said the Superintendent, patting Bob on the back, and "if you'll only bring your father here in that shape, you shall have the best train on the road."

A shop in Baltimore was set on fire last week by the agency of a warped pane of glass in a window, which acted as a convex lens, and concentrating the sun's rays upon a pile of combustible material, caused it to take fire.

Tribute of Respect.

At a special communication of Richland Lodge No. 214, held at their Lodge room in Thomasville, N. C., July 26, A. D., 1866, A. L. 5866, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It having pleased Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from this terrestrial Lodge, we humbly trust, to the Celestial Lodge above, our much esteemed and beloved brother, A. G. Foster;

Be it Resolved, That while we deeply lament his untimely death, and the loss of one of our most devoted brothers, we humbly submit to the dispensation of the Divine will, trusting that our loss may be his eternal gain.

Resolved, That the bereaved family and relations of our deceased brother have our heart-felt sympathy in this sad bereavement.

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, and a copy be sent to the Sentinel for publication, and that the N. C. Presbyterian and Old North State be requested to copy.

DIED.

At Little Rock, Arkansas, on the 9th. of July last, after a long and painful illness, MR. JAMES A. HUTCHINGS, in the 49th. year of his age. He was a native of Granville County in this State and brother of C. W. D. Hutchings, Esq. of this city, but for a number of years a citizen of Little Rock, Ark. The Arkansas Gazette speaking of his death, says, "he was many years chief clerk of the Auditor's office and served lengthy terms as City Recorder and Justice of the Peace. He was a man of fine abilities and of a generous nature."

DAGUERREOTYPE LOST.

MRS. THOMAS BRANCH, late of this city, but now of Richmond, about the time she removed from this city, lost a daguerreotype of an aged friend, which she values very highly. It represents an old man, with white hair, with a pair of spectacles in his hand and pointing to a small clock. The case is worn and has been mended.

She authorizes us to offer TWENTY DOLLARS reward for the recovery of said daguerreotype.

The Editors of the Sentinel will pay the reward, to any one who will deliver them the daguerreotype.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE.

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

The coming session of the several Departments of this College will open with full Faculties of instruction, several of its Professors from the South having resumed their chairs, at the dates following:

Preparatory Department,		Sept.	19th
Academical	"	"	26th
Law	"	Octo.	10th

EXCHANGE HOTEL,

RALEIGH, N. C.

WE have the pleasure to inform the travelling public, and our numerous friends, that, having recently assumed the management of this Hotel, we have spared no pains or expense in thoroughly renovating the premises, and supplying the House with elegant and necessary furniture entire.

We are determined to exert ourselves to furnish the neatest and most desirable accommodations to our patrons, and will make this House in all respects what a first class should be.

Hoping to have the pleasure of serving the public and our former patrons, we invite all to call and give us a trial.

BATTLE'S DIGEST.

The Digest of all the reported law cases in North Carolina, from the earliest period to the present year, is now nearly ready for the binder. It will consist of about 1200 pages, including the table of cases, &c.—The book has been so arranged that it can be bound in one volume, or in two, according to the preference of the purchaser.

The cost of publication has been greater than was expected, in consequence of the book being larger, and it is ascertained that the author cannot afford to charge less than $15 for the volume or volumes of the Law, and $10 for the Equity volume to be paid on or before the delivery of the volumes respectively. The work, though containing much more matter, will cost but little more in currency, than was formerly charged in gold or its equivalent for the aggregate of Iredell's and Jones's Digest.

When a purchaser wants an interleaved copy, he will so state in his order for the book. There will be an additional price of one dollar for such copy.

We have consented to act as agents for Judge Battle in the sale of the Digest, and now solicit immediate orders, accompanied with directions as to how the book shall be bound, &c.

The printing of the Equity volume will be commenced without delay.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative notes, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Jarratt's Hotel, Petersburg, well and favorably known throughout the country, has passed into the hands of Saml. Stevens & Co., who will conduct it on first-class principles.

The Secretary of State invites proposals for supplying the public offices in the Capitol, &c., with wood.

The next session of the University of Virginia will begin on the 1st. day of September, with a full Faculty, and on the same enlarged basis as before the war.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., have white corn and flour.

See musical announcement of Ditson & Co., Boston.

The Election.

The following additional returns have been received:

	RATIFICATION.	REJECTION.
Iredell	685	130
Alamance,	139	420
Robeson	7	342
Warren	6	402
Cumberland	132	304
Cabarrus	253	128
Mecklenburg	277	144
Rowan	378	137
Lincoln	397	16
	2,274	2,032

Three precincts remain still to be heard from in this County. As far as ascertained, the vote stands; Ratification 687; Rejection 341.

We have returns from three boxes in Rutherford, as follows: Ratification 406; Rejection 2.

From the complexion of these returns, we are inclined to the opinion that the Constitution has been ratified by a small majority.

ARTIFICIAL LIMBS.—The factory in this City, for the manufacture of limbs for our disabled soldiers, is doing well. A number of our soldiers have been supplied and others are coming in daily. The State could not have performed a better deed.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.—At the invitation of the polite proprietor of this excellent Hotel, we invigorated and materially comforted the inner man, by a most capital dinner there on yesterday. We conclude that the many good things we have heard of the enterprise, politeness and skill of Mr. Blair, as a caterer and accomplished Hotel keeper, are true to the letter. Every portion of the premises is undergoing thorough renovation, and the chambers and dining room are set off in the style and with the taste, which so distinguish the Hotels in our larger cities.—We trust our host will receive ample patronage for his cheerful toil.

Rev. T. E. SKINNER.—Furman University, S. C., has conferred on Rev. T. E. Skinner, of this city, the honorary title of D. D.

SPECIAL TERM.—By request of Gov. Worth, his Honor, Judge Mitchell, will hold a special Court of Oyer and Terminer for the County of Cabarrus.

MEMORIAL TO MISS LEE.—Being prevented from attending the interesting ceremonies which take place, to-day, at the Jones' Sulphur Springs, in Warren, connected with the erection of a monument to Miss Lee, daughter of Gen. Robert E. Lee, by the ladies of Warren, we hope some friend will do us the kindness to furnish us with a suitable notice of it.

KEROSENE OIL.—A subscriber wishes to know whether or not the greasy condition of glass lamps on the outside, in which Kerosene Oil is burned, is owing to the penetration of the oil through the glass. We are so rusty in scientific reading, that we are not prepared to give a scientific answer. Much of the grease on glass lamps is put upon them by careless hands and a greasy rag, yet the peculiar nature of Kerosene inclines us to believe that, while burning, it is forced through the pores of the glass.

The Hillsboro' N. C. Military Academy.

General R. E. Colston, who lost everything during the war but his ability, energy and fortitude, has revived the Hillsboro' Military Academy, in North Carolina, and seeks, as he well deserves it, the generous support of a discriminating public. This Academy, (located in one of the most beautiful and healthy regions of the old North State,) was founded by the gallant and lamented Colonel C. C. Tew, who fell fighting for the South at Sharpsburg. The buildings and grounds having been adapted originally to the purposes of a military school under competent superintendence, they will compare favorably with those of any other institution of the kind in the South; and as they are the property of the widow of the late Colonel Tew, any aid afforded the Academy in the way of patronage will benefit that lady and her family.

General Colston, at the beginning of the recent war, was Professor of Military History and Strategy and also of Political Economy in the Virginia Military Institute. He might have retained his position there had he not preferred to serve his country in the field. He was with Johnston and Magruder on the peninsula, with Lee and Jackson at Chancellorsville, and with Beauregard at Savannah and Petersburg. At the latter point he had the honor to command the local militia on the 9th of June, 1864, in one of the most gallant and desperate fights of the whole war. Throughout his service he acted with conspicuous merit, and the deeds of his brigade, under his skillful direction, will live on some of the proudest pages of our history.

The ability of General Colston in the department which he has undertaken, is undoubted; for his experience in the field has improved that theoretical knowledge for which he was noted as a Professor at the Virginia Military Institute. His private worth has endeared him to all who have come in connection with him, and youths entrusted to his care will be most kindly but firmly dealt with. Though the Southern people have not taken secret oaths to employ none in any capacity who did not serve in the Confederate army, yet it is nothing but becoming and just that those who have become poor in the common cause should be helped in their efforts to retrieve their fortunes. We hope that the Southern press will recollect to bring the Hillsboro' Military Academy to the attention of the people, so that General Colston may attain that success which he and his enterprise so well merit.—Rich. Examiner.

PENNSYLVANIA SOLDIERS.

Immense Convention at Harrisburg.

The President Fully Endorsed.--The Soldiers Declare Against Negro Suffrage,--They Demand Representation for the South,--Speeches, Resolutions, etc., etc.

At a meeting of the Pennsylvania soldiers, held at Harrisburg, on the 1st. instant, at which every county in the State was fully represented, and speeches were made by several distinguished soldiers, the policy of the President was fully endorsed, representation for the South was demanded, negro suffrage and equality was repudiated as unwise and impolitic. The meeting was immense, and it was characterized by harmony and great enthusiasm. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we hold the same belief now that we did when we took up arms in 1861, that the war was a war for the Union, and for no other purpose; that the agreement we made with the Government when we took up arms to defend her against armed rebellion, is found in the joint resolution in Congress adopted July 22d, 1861, which declares that this war is not prosecuted on our part in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the several States unimpaired. This is the bond many sealed with their lives, and many others signed in blood.

Resolved, That the failure of Congress to carry into effect this joint resolution, after the war is over, and to restore the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired, is a gross violation of a solemn compact, made with the defenders of the government at her time of greatest need and peril.

Resolved, That we repudiate the action of the Radical Congress, which is an insult to every officer, soldier and seaman who served in the Federal army during the rebellion; their policy admits that our victories accomplished what the enemy could not—divided the Union—and the fruits of our toil and blood-bought victories burn to ashes in their hands.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the restoration policy of President Johnson, as announced in his annual, special and veto messages, and further made known to the country in his treatment to the States lately in rebellion; we believe it to be just and humane, and better adapted than any other known policy to restore those States to their Constitutional relations to the Union, and bring renewed peace, happiness and prosperity to the country.

Resolved, That the action of Congress in refusing seats to the Senators and members from the South who bear true allegiance to the Constitution and laws, while that body is engaged in changing the fundamental laws of the country in an important particular, is revolutionary in its action, while their conduct in taxing the South without her consent strikes at the vital principle of constitutional liberty—that there can be no taxation without representation.

Resolved, That we are opposed to negro suffrage, and all legislation that has for its object the raising of the negro to social or political equality with the white man, or to make him the pet of the nation, meets our unqualified disapproval.

Arrest of a Government Forger with Fifty Thousand Dollars--He Marries A Fashionable Lady of Washington and starts for a Bridal Tour to Europe--But is Nabbed at Philadelphia.

The Northern papers are full of the particulars of an arrest of an individual who perpetrated successfully a forgery upon the Navy and Treasury Departments, by means of which he came into the possession of $60,000 of Government money. His name is William Ringgold Cooper, an acting ensign in the Navy, and quite recently on duty in the Office of Detail, Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department. The Philadelphia papers give the following additional particulars:

Some days ago a sharper, by representing himself as A. R. Allen, a purser in the navy, succeeded in obtaining a draft on the treasury for the amount of fifty thousand dollars, to which the genuine signatures of the Secretary of the Navy, and all the officers of the Treasury Department, through whose hands such matters generally pass, were attached. The rogue then had the draft made payable at the sub-treasury at Philadelphia, and deposited it together with $2,000 in currency, in the First National Bank of Philadelphia, and on the next day checked out the whole amount and left for parts unknown. The swindle was first discovered in the office of Fourth Auditor, where Purser A. R. Allen was well known, and, it being a matter of surprise in that office that he should require so much money, he was written to, whereupon the fraud was discovered. The draft was obtained from the Navy Department by means of forged requisitions, and so well were all the minute details arranged that the officials were unable to understand how the perpetrator had obtained his knowledge of the requisite minutiæ.

For several days the detectives were at fault on the scent, but on Thursday detective Slemm "bagged the game." The offender William Ringgold Cooper, alias A. R. Allen, was arrested in the afternoon train from Baltimore, at the Baltimore depot, at Broad and Prime streets, under circumstances peculiary delicate and distressing. He had married that morning, in Washington, a young lady of highly respectable family. They were on their bridal tour, attended by a gay and happy escort of bridesmaids and groomsmen, to New York city, from whence the newly wedded pair were to sail to Europe. The startling shock to the joyous hopes of the bride may be imagined, but not described. She was committed to the care of friends in the upper section of our city, while her unworthy husband was removed by the officers of the law. Nearly all the stolen funds were recovered from his person in the form of United States five-twenty bonds.

After a private hearing before United States Commissioner Sergeant, in the Mayor's office, he was allowed a short visit to his afflicted wife. He has been held for a further hearing on Saturday. Meanwhile he is imprisoned within the ponderous walls of Moyamensing prison.

The city of Memphis, Tenn., is rapidly recovering from the effects of the war. It is stated that over $655,000 are at present invested in putting up first-class buildings, and that there are over four hundred minor houses in the course of construction. Business of all kinds is said also to be improving.

A negro in Galveston, Texas, while smoking his pipe near an open keg of gunpowder in a grocery store, dropped a spark amongst the powder. The result was the sudden disappearance of the negro and the store. Some fragments were afterwards picked up, but they were not of much value.

A lady appeared recently at the concert in the Champs Elysees in a black and white muslin dress (the Prussian colors,) embroidered all over with needle-guns, and with Prussian soldiers mowing down Austrians with the murderous weapon; and the little cockade which now serves as a substitute for a bonnet was trimmed with aguillettes of the needle-gun pattern.

Our Wednesday Morning Despatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7, P. M.

The U. S. Consul at Antwerp, under date of July 18, informs the State Department that the cholera at that place is gradually on the increase. The daily death list ranges from 60 to 95. The disease first made its appearance in an emigrant vessel, which was not ordered away in time to prevent the infection from reaching the shore. The Consul advises a strict surveillance to be kept over all vessels from that point.

Our Consul in Spain writes that a strict quarantine at Port Mahon has been ordered on all American vessels bound for Spanish ports.

Gens. Steedman and Fullerton had a long interview with the President this morning. No executive appointments made to-day.

The Secretary of the French Legation here writes to the Secretary of State, stating that the grave events transpiring in Europe will not delay the Paris Exposition. In a word, he says that everything induces the anticipation that the Exposition will be completely ready by the 1st of April, 1867.

LONDON, August 5.

Before the armistice was extended to Bavaria, the Prussians had moved and secured a good footing.—They are forcing a paper currency upon the people.

By agreement the Prussians are to occupy Wirzburg, and the Bavarians are to retain the Fortress of Mentz. The Baden troops left it yesterday and the Wirtemburg troops will leave it on the 8th.

The river Rhine is re-opened.

During the last three days, the Austrains have been pouring into Tyrol, via Bavaria, to the number of about 40,000.

The Italian navy is to be re-organized. A new Italian loan has been ordered since the beginning of the truce. A part of the Swiss troops, which were guarding the Italian border, have been disbanded.

The cholera is increasing in England.

NEWS BY THE MAILS.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

New Orleans Riot Investigations---General Sheridan called on for a Statement.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The President on Saturday last addressed by telegram to General Sheridan certain interrogatories concerning the late New Orleans disturbances, with the view of obtaining a brief statement of the material features of th eaffair, commencing with the meeting of the revolutionists on the 27th of July, and ending with the riots of the 30th and 31st of the same month. To-day a telegram in answer to this was received from General Sheridan, informing the President that the required statement would be speedily furnished.

We have information here which makes it appear almost without a doubt that General Baird, who was in command at New Orleans during the late disturbances, and from their inception, was in full sympathy and had a perfect understanding with the "political agitators and revolutionary men."

Tennessee Delegates.

NASHVILLE, August 6.—The Nashville District Convention have elected the Hon. W. B. Campbell and the Hon. N. S. Brown, as delegates to the National Union Convention to be held in Philadelphia.

Texas Delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, August 5.—The Texas delegation to the Philadelphia Convention, headed by the Hon. David Burnett, left yesterday for Philadelphia.

A Western paper, in describing the debut of a young actor, says that "he broke the ice felicitously with his opening sentence, and was immediately drowned with applause."

The First Dose Relieved.

Wm. Verrel, Esq., Matoaca, Va., says, "I was afflicted with the Liver complaint for two years, sometimes so bad that I could not lie upon my left side for one minute, nor could I walk but a short distance without stopping to rest. I tried several kinds of patent medicines but found no relief. I also tried the skill of the most eminent Physicians but still found no relief. I was at last induced to try your Pills [THE SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS,] and from the first dose I found relief, and continued to mend until I was perfectly cured. I am now a well man."

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite: Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va. Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance qualify him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R E COLSTON, Superintendent Hillsborough Military Academy, Hillsborough N. C.

MAGGIEL'S CHILLS AND FEVER PILLS!

Maggiel's Fever and Ague Pills!

MAGGIEL'S FEVER AND AGUE

PILLS!!

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 49 Fulton St.
New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

SOUTHERN FERTILIZING COMPANY,

Richmond Va,

Colonel William Gilham,

(late Professor of Chemistry at the Virginia Military Institute,)

CHEMIST AND SUPERINTENDENT.

This COMPANY having placed in their works the most modern and approved MACHINERY, will be prepared on the FIRST OF AUGUST to furnish FERTILIZERS on an extensive scale, compounded under the immediate supervision of the eminent chemist named above.

They propose to offer for sale:

PURE PERUVIAN GUANO,

(warranted free from admixture,) ground and pulverized; thus avoiding for the farmer the necessity of breaking up the lumps, and not only saving him from loss by waste, but securing him uniformity and regularity in its application.

MANIPULATED GUANO

composed of pure Peruvian and Phosphatic Guano in equal proportions, finely ground and thoroughly incorporated.

OLD DOMINION GUANO,

composed of Peruvian and Phosphatic Guano, in combination with other ingredients, and containing four per cent. of ammonia.

PLASTER,

finely ground from the best Nova Scotia lump. None will be used not strictly adapted to agricultural purposes.

BONE DUST.

A large quantity of bones having been purchased, a constant supply of pure Bone Dust will be kept on hand.

This company commends itself to the patronage of the Southern agricultural community as a HOME INSTITUTION, under the management of one practically acquainted with Southern lands, and thoroughly competent to decide upon the best agents for their permanent improvement. Under his control the public have assurance that nothing will be offered them that is not of real and intrinsic value.

The undersigned, composing the above company, offer their personal guarantee, in connection with Colonel Gilham, that their Fertilizers shall be as represented.

Liberal arrangements will be made with commission merchants and grocers, who are invited to confer with the President (post office box 974.)

HENDERSON COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE,

[ON THE R. and G. R. R.]

FRED. A. FETTER, A. M.—Connected for six years with the UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA as Tutor—having taken charge of this Institution, proposes to open it on Monday August 6th.

The usual classical and English course of instruction will be given, his aim being to build up a thoroughly good school in this neighborhood, and to prepare boys for the ordinary business of life, or for entering with credit any of our Southern Universities.

TERMS.—Per session of 20 weeks [half in advance]

Primary department [currency]	$20 00
Higher English "	$25.00
Classical "	$30.00

HENDERSON is well known as being a healthy and pleasant locality. Board can be obtained on moderate terms. It is important that students should enter at the opening of the session.

For further particulars address Mr. FETTER at Henderson, Granville County.

E. MURRAY & CO., WILMINGTON, N. C. JAMES T. MURRAY & CO. NEW YORK.

THE UNDERSIGNED adopt this method of informing their friends and customers, that from this date, July 2d, the style of their firm will be E. MURRAY & Co., in the City, and JAMES T. MURRAY & CO., in the city of New York.

Our long experience in this city, and that of James T. Murray for some time in the city of New York, will enable us, we confidently believe, to serve the interests of our customers, as well as any other house; and we respectfully solicit a continuance of the patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed upon us; promising that, at all times, our best efforts shall be used in behalf of our customers.

All shipments made to our house in New York, will be insured from point of shipment, unless otherwise ordered, and forwarded promptly through by our house in this city; and no charges will be made for forwarding, except those actually paid out.

We have ample warehouse room for produce.

Our office in this city is at our old stand, North Water street.
